

GLORY TO GOD
Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

HYMNS FOR SATURDAY 6PM MASS with Saturday Music Ministry

ENTRANCE HYMN

Shout to the Lord

My Jesus, my Saviour,
Lord, there is none like You.
All of my days, I want to praise,
The wonders of your mighty love.

My comfort, my shelter,
Tower of refuge and strength.
Let every breath, all that I am,
Never cease to worship you.

Refrain
Shout to the Lord, all the earth let us sing.
Power and majesty, praise to the King.
Mountains bow down,
and the seas will roar,
At the sound of Your name.
I sing for joy at the work of Your hands,
Forever I'll love You,
forever I'll stand.
Nothing compares to the promise
I have in you

HYMNS FOR SUNDAY 11AM MASS with St Fidelis School Choir

Christ Is Alive, With Joy We Sing

Christ is alive! With joy we sing

Praising the glory of his name
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

He is the sun which brings the dawn
He is the light of all the world
Setting us free from death and sin
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

He is the vine set in the earth
Sharing our life, becoming man
That man might share in god's own life
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

He is the bread which comes
from god
Broken to feed us in our need
Given to bring eternal life
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

COMMUNION

The Lord is my Shepherd

The Lord is my shepherd
and I want to follow,
wherever he leads me wherever he goes.
Over the mountains, the waters and byways, valleys and highways
he's waiting for me.

I want to go to meet Him there,
to lay myself down in His love.
The Lord is my shepherd
and I want to follow,
wherever he leads me wherever he goes

And while on the journey
to where we are going,
he promised to be there to help us along.
And over the mountains
we'll walk on together,
to know all the wonders he's given to me.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Sing To The Mountains

Refrain:
Sing to the mountains, sing to the sea
Raise your voices, lift your hearts.
This is the day the Lord has made,
Let all the earth rejoice.

I will give thanks to you my Lord,
You have answered my plea;
You have saved my soul from death,
You are my strength and my song.
Refrain

This is the day the Lord has made
Let us be glad and rejoice.
He has turned all death to life
Sing of the glory of God

This Sunday, Catholic parishes will no doubt honor mothers in the congregation. But because May 12 is also World Day of Prayer for Vocations, there are some links between mothers and vocations.

When the Pope Kissed His Mother's Ring

Pope Pius X (1835-194) was a very humble man and had a saintly mother, Margarita Sanson. Because they were so poor, she worked as a washer woman and a school janitor to earn enough money so that he could go to the seminary. (In those days, the family had to pay for the seminarian's education.) When he was installed as Pope, his mother was present, and as was the custom, she kissed his large papal ring. She then presented her tiny hand with her wedding ring and said, "Now you kiss my ring—for without it, you never would have received yours!"

Mary Sparked Her Son's Vocation

One could imagine a Jewish mother of a single son, while attending a wedding, might nudge her son to go dance with the young women—perhaps because she is ready for grandchildren! Not so with Mary at the wedding in Cana. She, of course, knew her son's divine origins and suspected his divine mission. So instead, she sparked the beginning of Jesus's public ministry—as well as his priestly ministry, because turning water into wine was a foreshadowing of him turning wine into his Blood. Thus we see in Mary an example of a mother who not only nurtured life, but also nurtured a vocation.

G.K. Chesterton: The Inestimable Value of Motherhood

"How can it be a large career to teach other people's children... and a small career to tell one's own children about the universe? How can it be broad to be the same thing to everyone, and narrow to be EVERYTHING to someone? No. A woman's function is laborious but because it is GIGANTIC, not because it is minute. I will pity Mrs. Jones for the hugeness of her task; I will never pity her for its smallness."

Today we welcome Jaycee Napoles, a fifth year seminarian from our seminary, Corpus Christi College, in Carlton. Jaycee will speak at the Masses today about his vocation.

WORLD DAY OF VOCATIONS

Pope Francis tells us:

There can be no greater joy than to risk one's life for the Lord! I would like to say this especially to you, the young. Do not be deaf to the Lord's call. If he calls you to follow this path, do not pull your oars into the boat, but trust him.

Let us pray for the young people in our community, and in our families and circle of friends. May our prayers help them to be open to the Lord's call to consecrated life or priesthood.

Vocation Views “Who will shepherd God's people? Pray that good leaders, filled with joy and the Holy Spirit, will serve our Church. (Acts 13:14,43-52)

Stewardship Reflections: “The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.” (Acts 13:52)

The disciples heard Our Lord’s call and were able to spread the Gospel message with strength and vitality. We, too, can experience that same joy if we make room for the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts. When we use our gifts in the way that God intends, He fills us with supernatural joy. A joy that others notice and are attracted to.

helps the Capuchin Friars with their Soup Van

They meet at St Peter and Paul's Church

prepare the food, then drive to St Kilda to distribute the food and chat with the people who come to eat.

At St Fidelis Parish, we are hoping to form a

FEDERAL ELECTION

The Bishops of Australia have issued a Pastoral Letter on the Federal Election. The full letter can be seen at www.catholic.org.au. Some excerpts are :

- Christian faith is not a private matter.
- As citizens who are Catholic, we have the opportunity to participate in the electoral process, to use our voice and our vote for the benefit of the whole community.
- No political party fully aligns with Catholic teaching, but we can point to clear and enduring principles which can help us make the kind of responsible judgements that allow us to be both faithfully Catholic and authentically Australian.
- In offering this statement, we want to highlight some principles of Catholic social teaching which may help your consider your vote.
- As Catholics, we look to the city of God. This obliges us to take our place firmly and faithfully in the human city that we are called to join others in building.

 Australian Catholic Youth Festival
In December this year, Perth will host the 4th Australian Catholic Youth Festival. The Archbishop is inviting young people to attend with the aim of 2,500 pilgrims from Melbourne. Details at www.cam.org.au/acyf19.
If any young people are interested (year 9-30yrs) see one of the priests for more information.

REJOICE & BE GLAD Last year Pope Francis issued a document entitled ‘Gaudete et Exsultate’ (Rejoice and Be Glad) - encouraging all of us to strive for holiness in everyday life. Over the next few weeks we will publish some quotes from the document of your reflections and prayer.
“The saints surprise us, they confound us, because by their lives they urge us to abandon a dull and dreary mediocrity.”
