

Language Study Programs

Learn a language overseas with WEP!

WORLD EDUCATION PROGRAM
AUSTRALIA

Immersion is the best way to learn a new language and improve your fluency quickly. Head overseas on a WEP Language Study Program for an unforgettable journey – learn the language, experience the culture, live the local lifestyle!

Choose between learning French in Paris, Spanish in Madrid, Korean in Seoul or Japanese in Kobe. With many programs and durations available, find the option that suits you best!

Our world has never been more global. Through this international study program, you will be gaining valuable life skills and fluency in a second or third language, to stand out from the crowd.

WEP has over 30 years of experience in providing quality Language Study Programs. We hand-pick the best language schools in each country to offer you the experience of a lifetime and exceed your expectations!

WEP offer support before, during and after your program. We respond to your questions and are always by your side in case of need. For any emergencies, we are contactable 24/7.

The WEP program is a wonderful opportunity for young people to experience a different way of life. This includes learning another language and a different culture, and challenging oneself to meet new people and participate in new experiences.”
Edmund (student in France)

Junior programs

13-17 years old

Specifically designed for younger students, our Junior Programs combine language classes with activities and outings for an exciting, fun mix.

Local homestay families welcome the students for a cultural immersion experience in a supportive environment.

With durations varying between 2 and 6 weeks, a Junior Program is a fantastic way to make the most of the school holidays in July or December!

A TYPICAL DAY

Start the day • Jump on public transport to reach your school and get ready for an exciting day.

Time to learn • Around 9:30 am, your language lessons begin and go on for the whole morning.

Outings and activities • A rich program including excursions, organises visits and activities to continue making progress with the language while discovering the local culture.

Dinner's ready • Enjoy dinner with your host family and make the most of this occasion to practice your speaking and listening skills.

Some more fun • Your hosts and your new friends may have more in store for you: games, music, movies, dancing...

Adult programs

Keen on improving your language skills while discovering the destination of your dreams? Choose between a range of course options, including standard, intensive or semi-intensive classes, private lessons, and more! Accommodation options include homestay, student residence, private or shared apartment – your choice. A highly personalised program where the only thing set in stone is the quality of your language course.

During your free time, discover all that your host city has to offer. You can spend some time with new friends made at school, explore your surroundings at your own pace, and participate in optional activities and social outings facilitated by your language school.
