UNIVERSITY

Doctor of Medicine Applicants Western Sydney University

Applications for the 2022 intake will open 1 August 2021 and close Midnight AEST 30 September 2021. Late applications will not be accepted.

The purpose of our admissions process is to identify students who will learn and thrive in the environments in which we teach and from which our medical students build their careers. Medicine is a physically and mentally challenging profession where practitioners are often required to put the interest of their patients over their own. The Joint Program in Medicine is a five-year undergraduate degree which aims to help candidates develop necessary skills for practice of medicine.

Sydney Actors School Applications now open for 2022

Applications to Sydney Actors School are now open for the January 2022 intake. Australia's premiere acting school has a clear vision; the school is about providing the most personalised, hands-on practical training in acting in the world. Sydney Actors School employs industry professionals with real credits. Many institutions will offer "industry professionals" as lecturers, however they have not worked at significant levels in the international film and TV industry. Our lecturers have had major impact in their chosen fields e.g. Philip Quast, Kevin Jackson and Julia Cotton. This is why many of lecturers are also the chairs and presidents of the guilds for their industry bodies. We are very selective across all disciplines. Entry to our accredited programs is by a strict audition and interview process. Our goal is not to fill seats with students and promise the world – we are serious about assisting students to launch their acting careers. This is why we have very limited enrolments and a thorough audition and interview process to gain enrolment into our acting courses

GENERAL

The Interview Questions and How to Nail the Job Interview

Job interviews can be damn intimidating. You spend ages psyching yourself up to even apply for the thing and then you get the call offering you an interview, go you!

Full disclosure; the first time I had a job interview (it was for a Brumby's bakery you guys) was also the first time I discovered my body is capable of producing sweat from many new places, including, (but not limited to); the front of https://www.fya.org.au/2015/10/27/how-to-nail-the-job-interview/?gclid=EALalQobChMIsPCJy8u36wIVx3wrCh2FBQD1EAAYASAAEgLFsvD_BwE

Police Force - University Certificate in Workforce Essentials

If you are considering a policing career with the NSW Police Force, one of the first steps will be completing a foundation level program called the University Certificate in Workforce Essentials (UCWE). The UCWE replaces the previous minimum academic requirement and is a mandatory requirement for all future NSW Police Force applicants.

Successful students will be awarded a University Certificate which contributes to the NSW Police Force recruitment selection ranking score. Read more about ranking scores.

NSW Police Application Process

Once you have successfully completed the University Certificate in Workforce Essentials (UCWE) you may be eligible to submit an application to the NSW Police Force. Once received, your police application will be allocated to a Recruitment case officer who will get to work processing your application.

Read more

1. Background Checks

Upon receipt of your police application your recruitment case officer will conduct a number of background checks including detailed background vetting, employment checks and a more thorough investigation of your history.

Read more

2. Physical & Medical Assessment

As a police recruit applicant, you will be required to undertake a number of physical tests to determine your ability to perform the physical demands inherent to operational policing. You will also be invited to attend a full medical assessment including a complete medical history. The assessment will be conducted by an external provider and will assess your medical fitness to perform the inherent role and functions of an operational police officer.

Read more

3. Interview

The final stage of the recruitment process is a formal face to face interview. The interview will be conducted by a three (3) member panel and will provide an opportunity for the NSW Police Force to assess you against a number of core qualities. The interviews will be conducted at a number of metropolitan and regional locations.

Get into Surveying

In order to let students know more about the surveying profession, it helps to have resources at hand. We have put together a range of material that will help communicate what surveying is, as well as the need for more surveyors entering the industry. Surveying is an exciting field of study that will greatly appeal to any students you know who love subjects like maths, geography and IT – and anyone who likes the idea of working outdoors a lot of the time. If these resources help you reach those students, then that is a great success.
