TAX CLINIC

Free advice for unrepresented taxpayers.

GET FREE, CONFIDENTIAL ADVICE ON THE TAX MATTERS THAT IMPACT YOU

Under the supervision of qualified tax professionals, students at the University of South Australia's Tax Clinic can assist you with a range of tax matters.

This student-led clinic has been established to provide accessible tax services to unrepresented members of the community. Students are supervised by qualified tax professionals to deliver services including:

- Professional and confidential advice regarding tax matters
- Representation with respect to tax return lodgements and tax debts
- Education to help you comply with tax laws
- Advocacy on your behalf to the Australian Taxation Office.

This service is available to individual and small business taxpayers who do not have a tax agent. Please contact us to see if you qualify.

Your initial appointment will be an interview of up to 30 minutes, with 1-2 UniSA students who will then review your tax issue with a tax professional and provide advice, or an alternative recommendation.

The clinic is located at UniSA's City West Campus, near public transport services.

Bookings are essential, please arrange an appointment by
