23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time—6th and 7th of September 2025

Gospel Reflection – Luke 14:25–33

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus speaks to the crowds about the cost of discipleship. His words are strong and challenging: to follow Him means placing God above everything else in our lives. He is not asking us to abandon our families or responsibilities, but to recognise that our love for Him must be the foundation from which all other loves flow.

Jesus reminds us that discipleship is not something casual or half-hearted. Just as someone building a tower or a king preparing for battle must carefully consider what is required, so too must we honestly reflect on what it means to be His follower. It calls for trust, sacrifice, and sometimes letting go of what holds us back.

This Gospel is an invitation to examine our hearts. What are the "possessions" – whether material, emotional, or spiritual – that weigh us down and keep us from freely following Christ? Jesus asks us to walk the path of discipleship with courage, knowing that true freedom and lasting joy are found only in Him.

With every blessing, Fr Jerald

Celebrating Father's Day

This Sunday, we honour the fathers, grandfathers, and father figures who guide us with love, wisdom, and strength.

After Mass, all fathers are warmly invited to receive a special bookmark from one of our altar servers—a small gift with a big blessing.

Prayer for Fathers

Heavenly Father,
we thank you for the gift of
our fathers.

Bless them with wisdom,
strength, and love as they
guide their families.

May they feel your presence
in their lives and be filled with your grace.

Amen.

VISIT TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

"Cheap grace is the preaching of forgiveness without requiring repentance, Baptism without church discipline, Communion without confession, grace without discipleship, grace without the cross, and grace without Jesus.... Cheap grace costs us nothing (in the short term). Costly grace costs us our life, but it is also the source of the only true and complete life."

- Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Readings for 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time—6th and 7th of September 2025

First Reading—Wisdom 9:13-18

What man can know the intentions of God? Who can divine the will of the Lord? The reasonings of mortals are unsure and our intentions unstable; for a perishable body presses down the soul, and this tent of clay weighs down the teeming mind. It is hard enough for us to work out what is on earth, laborious to know what lies within our reach; who, then, can discover what is in the heavens? As for your intention, who could have learnt it, had you not granted Wisdom and sent your holy spirit from above? Thus have the paths of those on earth been straightened and men been taught what pleases you, and saved, by Wisdom.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 67

Response: In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Second Reading Philemon 12-17:Phlm 9-10, 12-17

This is Paul writing, an old man now and, what is more, still a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for a child of mine, whose father I became while wearing these chains: I mean Onesimus. I am sending him back to you, and with him – I could say – a part of my own self. I should have liked to keep him with me; he could have been a substitute for you, to help me while I am in the chains that the Good News has brought me. However, I did not want to do anything without your consent; it would have been forcing your act of kindness, which should be spontaneous. I know you have been deprived of Onesimus for a time, but it was only so that you could have him back for ever, not as a slave any more, but something much better than a slave, a dear brother; especially dear to me, but how much more to you, as a blood-brother as well as a brother in the Lord. So if all that we have in common means anything to you, welcome him as you would me.

Gospel Acclamation :

Alleluia, alleluia! Let your face shine on your servant, and teach me your laws. Alleluia!

Gospel— Luke 14:25-33

Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them. 'If any man comes to me without hating his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple. Anyone who does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it? Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, the onlookers would all start making fun of him and saying, "Here is a man who started to build and was unable to finish." Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who advanced against him with twenty thousand? If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace. So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.'

St Jude's Parish Community is committed to the Victorian Child Safe Standards and acknowledges that child safe guarding is everyone's responsibility.
