Bachelor of Speech Pathology (Honours)

Federation's new Bachelor of Speech Pathology degree offered at the Ballarat and Gippsland campuses, will develop students' knowledge and core practical skills in anatomy and neurophysiology behind communication and swallowing impairments, the science of speech and hearing, linguistics, language, and healthcare. Students will also learn how to identify and implement appropriate therapeutic treatments and management options.

As a Speech Pathologist, students may work as a clinician, educator, researcher, policy advisor, manager, advocate or consultant in a variety of industries including government and non-government organisations, education, health, welfare, policy development, community-based organisations and private practice.

Bachelor of Nursing

The Bachelor of Nursing program offers a comprehensive curriculum and professional knowledge, preparing graduates to deliver the highest quality care to improve patient outcomes.

Subjects within this program include working with diverse communities, mental health, medical and surgical nursing as well as palliative care. Students will also learn leadership, management, and communication skills.

As a registered nurse, graduates may work in a range of areas including emergency illness, mental health, long-term care, intercultural health, and population health. Further study options are also available in health, midwifery and paramedicine.

> New Bachelor of Cognitive Enterprise

Combining Business and Information Technology disciplines, Federation's new Bachelor of Cognitive Enterprise has been created in response to future industry needs. This is a business course that combines the disruptive technologies including AI, Blockchain, Internet of Things (IoT), 5G and Edge Computing with innovative processes and data, to enhance customer experience and gain competitive advantage.

The undergraduate Cognitive Enterprise program also offers a 'Professional Practice' delivery model which is attached to extensive industry placement and a scholarship at IBM®.

Career in Nuclear Medicine Technology

According to the Your Career website, Nuclear Medicine Technologists perform or assist in performing diagnostic examinations using radionuclides and radiopharmaceuticals, and administer radionuclides and radiopharmaceuticals for therapeutic purposes under the direction of Specialist Medical Practitioners. In other words, Nuclear Medicine Technologists are highly skilled medical imaging experts that use radioactive materials to diagnose physiological and metabolic changes within the body and treat diseases - Good Careers Guide.

This profession is best suited to people who -

- ✓ have an interest and aptitude in science.
- ✓ are able to work accurately.
- ✓ have a responsible and patient nature.
- ✓ have a sympathetic and understanding approach.
- ✓ are able to work independently or as part of a team.

Nuclear medicine technologists may perform the following tasks:

- Maintain and operate equipment such as gamma cameras and computing systems to acquire images and process and analyse patient data.
- Prepare and administer radiopharmaceuticals that demonstrate the function of organs in the body.
- Check the patient's medical status and ensure their comfort, privacy and safety needs are met during the procedure.
- Deliver findings of procedures to medical practitioners.
- Provide diagnosis and treatment for cancer patients.
- Perform laboratory procedures, including blood and specimen collection and quality control testing.
- Make sure that radioactive materials are handled, stored and disposed of in a safe manner.
- Perform routine quality control and testing procedures on instrumentation, radiopharmaceuticals, data, images, and computing systems.
- Initiate and participate in research programmes and in the development of new techniques.

A number of universities across the country offer accredited studies in Nuclear Medicine, and in Victoria students can study the Bachelor of Applied Science (Medical Radiations) at RMIT University. Nuclear Medicine is one of the streams students can choose to specialise in.

Engineering Heroes Podcasts

Engineers Australia is at the helm of the Engineering Heroes podcast series. Students keen on a career in engineering may find these podcasts about the engineering challenges in today's society of interest. Engineers discuss their work life and the issues they are dealing with.

There are various categories of podcasts including aerospace, building services, and computer systems.

Visit Engineering Heroes and sign up for regular updates.

Nursing - Division 2 (Enrolled) Courses in 2022

Division 2 or Enrolled nurses are trained with the full spectrum of nursing qualifications, and these skills include communicating with patients, working in a team, medication, and clinical nursing duties. These nurses are able to implement and monitor patient care, administer medicines, comply with infection control and work, health, and safety policies, perform clinical assessments and contribute to planning patient care. To become an Enrolled nurse, one must complete a Diploma of Nursing. The VCE entry requirement for the diploma is a Year 12 pass. On completion of the course students will be eligible to apply for registration as an Enrolled Nurse with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) or go on to further study to become a Registered Nurse.

Note: The Diploma of Nursing is currently a Free TAFE course.

Students are advised to browse VTAC for a comprehensive list of all nursing courses.
