

CHARACTER 'CROSSOVER':

JACK and the GIANT

When you are the character of 'Jack', you will turn to face your left.

- Begin your argument as the Giant by saying "You came onto my land!"
- Now pretend to be Jack, and turn to face the Giant (as if he were there)
- Now argue from Jack's perspective. For example: "I didn't know it was your land, there were no fences'.
- Continue to argue as each character until you run out of arguments.

When you are the character of the Giant, you will turn to face your right.
