You will have seen media reports of the conviction of Cardinal George Pell. The Archbishop of Brisbane and President of the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference, the Most Rev. Mark Coleridge has released a statement to the Catholic community. A copy is attached here for your information.

There is no doubt that news of this verdict of Cardinal Pell will bring with it a range of emotions. The legal process will now run its course.

If you or your child requires support, please contact your School Principal.

We should never forget, that in any matter of this nature, our concern and prayers are with victims and their families. Please be assured that our school system works tirelessly to ensure the safety of every child in our schools, and will continue to do so as together we share the responsibility for the wellbeing of your children.
