

An Evening with ACOS Tickets on Sale Monday at 9am

Dear Parents,

Tickets to attend the upcoming performance An Evening with ACOS will be available from 9am on Monday 26 June. (Please note, before this time, the event will display as cancelled).

The event will be held on Thursday 10 August from 6pm at Armidale Secondary College.

All students will be offered a seat at the final dress rehearsal the day before, so there is no need to purchase tickets for students unless they wish to attend the night time production.

Please note: Once all tickets are sold, there will be no more offered.
