

Benefits for Your Child

READING RESOURCES

audio books

e-books

e-magazines

REVIEW SITES

A great source of independent book recommendations for Australian readers and their families.

Lots of reviews of books plus full listings for authors, genres etc.

Young adult website for writers and readers supported by the State Library of Victoria.

The world's largest site for readers and book recommendations. Their mission is to help people find and share books they love.

STREAMING

Delivers one of the largest collections of indie films, classic cinema, festival and educational documentaries, and movies. Online or through an app.

RESEARCH & STUDY

The Statistics section of the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) website gives you access to the full range of ABS statistical and reference information.

Australia's pre-eminent dictionary of national biographies. Find concise, informative and fascinating descriptions of the lives of significant and representative persons in Australian history.

Trove helps you find and use resources relating to Australia. Trove brings together content from libraries, museums, archives, newspapers and other research and collecting organisations big and small.

Access to the West Australian and Sunday Times online.

Community e-Papers at your fingertips.

Digital newspapers from across the world.

Provides resources for job seekers and learners of maths, English, and their tutors. This is part of the BBC Learning website.

Search all material held within the Alexander Library Building and a large percentage of material held in public libraries throughout Western Australia.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

THE WORLD FACTBOOK

The world fact book produced by the CIA.

eSmart Resources - Be Smart, Safe and Responsible Online.

Studiosity connects a student to an Australian teacher or tutor online to discuss maths, English, science, research, study skills, or a library skills question. Studiosity is on-demand and can be accessed from home or the library.

Think U Know promotes education for young people aged 11 to 17 years, equipping them with the awareness and skills to identify risks and avoid dangers in the online realm.