

GET UP! STAND UP!

Movements, Rights and Freedoms in Australian Society

This subject combines History and Civics and Citizenship to explore contemporary issues relating to Australian democracy and society

THE AUSTRALIAN POLITICAL SYSTEM

We look at the role of political parties in Australia's system of government, including the formation of governments, and the processes that create government policy.

A HISTORY OF THE WOMEN'S MOVEMENT IN AUSTRALIA

This unit examines key campaigns of the women's movement, including the right to vote, equal pay, reproductive rights, countering violence and sexual assault, and rights in the workplace.

INDIGENOUS PEOPLES' STRUGGLES FOR JUSTICE

We look at the struggle of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples for rights and freedoms, including the Land Rights movement, the stolen generations and Black Lives Matter.

KEY SKILLS YOU WILL DEVELOP

- Conducting research to identify and analyse information and ideas from a range of sources
- Critically evaluating different historical interpretations
- Articulating different perspectives, verbally and in writing
- Engaging in discussion and debate around contemporary Australian social and political issues