February 2019

Ringwood Secondary College

Dear Deb,

Trade Show Invitation.

I am writing on behalf of the Association of Wall and Ceiling Industries Victoria [AWCIV] To Invite yourself and the students of Ringwood Secondary College to come along to our upcoming Trade Show which will be held on Thursday 16th May, 2019 from 11:00am – 8:00pm, at Norwood Sporting Club Ringwood.

We will be targeting AWCIV members, non – members, apprentices, and students interested in the industry.

About the AWCIV - Association of Wall and Ceiling Industry.

The Association is a Not for Profit Organization whose purpose is to support plasterers and wall and ceiling contractors in both commercial and domestic industry sectors within the Building and Construction Industry.

AWCIV provides expert advice on all aspects of the industry including the Australian Standards/Building codes and we encourage members to have input into the standards that shape our industry.

- The AWCIV provides assistance to members in areas such as contracts, seeking payments, dispute resolution and has access to mediation and legal services to assist.
- The AWCIV connects the industry by linking apprentices, customers, contractors, manufacturers, suppliers and service providers.
- The AWCIV is the voice of the industry to the Building Authorities, Local, State and Federal Governments, the Standards Association and all other bodies affecting the wall and ceilings and allied industries.
- The AWCIV social media and website provides technical information, newsletters, projects being undertaken by subcommittees, useful industry information and a calendar of upcoming social and networking events, RDO dates and course dates.
- The AWCIANZ publishes a magazine - "On The Surface" - which has been specifically produced to keep the wall and ceilings and allied industries up to date with comprehensive information regarding the industry which you will receive quarterly.

- The AWCI has an active social program where members are able to enjoy the fellowship the association offers, including awards evenings, golf days, race days, trade nights, annual conferences and more.
- The AWCI is actively involved in school pre-vocational promotion and education as well as apprentice training programs to improve skills and attract quality tradespeople to the industry. We deliver high quality training onsite which has been well received by both employers and trainees.

AWCI VIC is the principal organisation advocating the interests of contractors, suppliers and manufacturers in the wall and ceiling industries in Victoria. AWCI VIC is highly regarded by both members and the industry it serves, for providing valuable business, technical and product information, education, training and industry contacts, essential to operating a successful business.

The Association of Wall and Ceiling Industries Victoria provides the best opportunity to communicate with and influence this important building industry sector.

The Association is a non for profit organisation and is only run as a benefit to its members.
