Tally Ho Catering is the number one choice when it comes to fresh, delicious and affordable finger food catering in Melbourne. We have a large range of healthy menu options to choose from at very affordable prices.

Our selections will give your event or function the wow factor, not to mention they look delicious and taste great. Everyone always comments on our range of finger food catering options.

Not all finger food is the same. Generally the type of food we prepare and serve will depend on the type of function or event you want catered.

For example, cocktail finger food catering is very different to finger food for parties. If you are planning a party, work function or meeting our talented chefs and catering professionals can cater to any occasion and budget. The best thing is to call as speak with us about your requirements so we can advise you.

We consult with you to select the best packages available. Our food is delicious and will hit the spot and have your guests raving about it for days and weeks after your event.
