

The General Public and John XXIII College Parents are Invited to Attend

The Effects of Screen Use on Students and Learning

PRESENTER:

Dr MARGARET YOON
(International Conference Speaker)

Join Margaret on Wednesday 6 June, Mary McKillop Room, John XXIII College to deepen your understanding of what current research is saying about the impact of screen overuse and violent media on the brains of young people, their well-being and learning. Digital media is increasingly part of every student's life and indeed, the media is a powerful way of harnessing a student's curiosity but there are risks. Find out more!

Presenter: Margaret Yoon PhD; Churchill Fellow 2007; ANU Excellence in Secondary School Teaching 2010, International Presenter, teacher of Humanities and Social Sciences at John XXIII College and presenter for Teachers Training Australia. Margaret has a special interest in neuroscience research and her mission in life is to help all others grow and flourish and to lead happier and more contented lives.
