

ULURU

INTRODUCTION / BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Did you know that Uluru is the second biggest rock? Uluru is measured at 348m high and 3.6km in length. This is the most amazing landmark in the northern territory of Australia. In this sharing it is a cultural significant.

ANIMALS SURROUNDING ULURU

The red kangaroo is an animal in Uluru and many different animals such as a bilby, dingo, bats, thorny devils. The measure size of the male kangaroo is 2.4m tall. The red kangaroo is measured in height about 2m tall for a female, a male. The weight for a kangaroo male is 85kg and a female is 35kg. The red kangaroo is the one as a female to lay the eggs and the male is the one to hunt for the meat and food. The animal kangaroo communicates with loud noises with the leg to retreat backup.

BIG WRITE EBI AND WWW

1\9\23

EBI: to use more vocab in my writing.

WWW: i use my time wisely in the right way.