49 George St, Scoresby

"In a spirit of Pastoral outreach, we, the people of the Parish, are called to serve with joy."

11th Sunday in ordinary time—Year B—16th June 2024

Trust the process....

Sometimes all you need is faith as big as a mustard seed and God will do the rest!

Mark 4:26-34 offers two parables that illustrate the nature of God's kingdom: the Parable of the Growing Seed and the Parable of the Mustard Seed. These stories invite us to reflect on the Power of love and its transformative effect in our lives and the world.

In the Parable of the Growing Seed on the ground. The seed sprouts and grows, though the farmer does not know how. This parable reminds us of the mysterious and organic nature of love. Just as the seed grows unseen and almost miraculously, love takes root and flourishes in our hearts and communities in ways we often do not fully understand. Our role is to scatter the seeds of love, to act with kindness, compassion, and generosity, trusting that these acts will grow and bear fruit in their own time.

The Parable of the Mustard Seed highlights the small beginnings of the kingdom of God and its eventual, surprising greatness. Love, too, often begins with small gestures—a kind word, a smile, a helping hand. These seemingly insignificant acts, rooted in love, can grow into something vast and sheltering, providing comfort and support to many, much like the mustard plant's branches provide refuge for birds. Love's humble beginnings can lead to significant impacts, nurturing a community and fostering a sense of belonging and peace.

Together, these parables teach us that love is both a seed we plant and a tree that grows. It is both a small beginning and a great outcome. Love works quietly and persistently, transforming lives and communities in ways we may not immediately see but can trust are happening. By embracing love in our daily actions, we participate in the divine process of growth and transformation, contributing to a world that reflects the kingdom of God—a kingdom characterised by care, compassion and profound connection

Heavenly Father,

We thank You for the gift of Your Word, and the lessons on love and growth. Help us to plant seeds of love through our actions and trust in Your timing for their growth. May our small acts of kindness reflect Your kingdom and bring comfort and hope to others.

Amen

First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24

‘ From the top of the cedar,
from the highest branch I will take a shoot
and plant it myself on a very high mountain.
I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel.
It will sprout branches and bear fruit,
and become a noble cedar. Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches.
And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers
green trees and makes the withered green.
I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.’

Lay all your Cares about the future
Trustingly in God 's Hands.
Let yourself be guided by the Lord
like a child

— St Edith Stein

Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds, ‘This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time; he starts to reap because the harvest has come.’ He also said, ‘What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.’ Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone.

If you let Him,
He will show
you the way ....

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

We are always full of confidence when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight – we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad.

Faith is a place of mystery, where we find the courage to believe in what we cannot see and the strength to let go of our fear of uncertainty

—Brenee Brown

VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY, SCORESBY WINTER APPEAL

The past few years have been tough for so many people. From natural disasters and a global pandemic to cost-of-living pressures and overseas conflicts. So many people have struggled to get by with respite appearing out of reach. For as difficult as things are right now, the reality facing a growing number of people is a cause for great concern. As housing across the country becomes less secure, it's people like Luke (in picture above) who are becoming the new face of disadvantage and homelessness in Australia. Parishioners are encouraged to donate generously to help society's work of helping most in need during winter by clicking the Scoresby Conference link:
