Tennis – Around the Grounds

Year 5

Congratulations to our 5A and 5B Tennis Team who won their 5th round of competition against Iona 5-3 and 8-0. The boys were convincing in their victory. Special congratulations must go to the following boys who kept their opponents scoreless in their singles competition: Cooper Chaseling, George Holland, Quinton Reibelt, Riley Peatey, Brasco Forest and Pedro Chadud.

Year 6

Congratulations must also go to our 6B team who also managed to defeat their Iona counterparts 6 – 2. Special mention to Charlie Kelly and Gabe Pua who both won their singles games. Special mention must also go to Andrew Vetter whose tenacity on the court, along with his graciousness in defeat, continues to impress. Our 6A Team has had a challenging season to date and this week was no exception. Whilst the boys can be proud of the way they played their games despite their 8 – 0 loss, it is the way players lose a game that shows the true mark of character. To this end, I would like to especially congratulate Jack Lambley and Roy Power who, despite disappointment, showed graciousness and resilience in defeat. Well done boys.
