

The Arrogant Prince

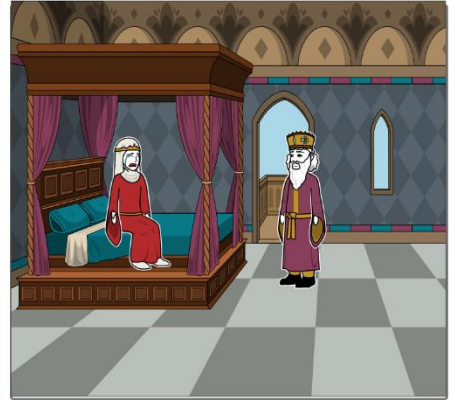

There was once a prince who was not liked the the people of his land. They only saw him as rich and arrogant.

Protests Against The Prince

The people would protest outside the castle he lived in. They didn't want him as a prince anymore.

The King And Queen worried for their son

The king and Queen grew worried for their son's safety and sent him to a neighboring village to keep him hidden.

The Prince is chased.

When the prince was trying to escape the castle he was spotted by some of the protesters and they began chase.

The prince arrives at the village.

After a long journey through the dense forest the prince arrived to the village but the protesters were still chasing him.

The prince looks normal.

The prince left the safety of his carriage and ran towards the market. he was able to loose the protesters and he found some clothes that made him look normal.

The prince is Shocked to se people with no money

A lady see's the prince give the man money

The prince is welcomed back the his kingdom

