Staying Connected With Our Children

Now is the time to stay close to our children.

They need to feel us beside them so they don't feel as worried as they are. We need to be honest with them and let them know that good people from around the world are working very hard to keep them safe and healthy. Our children will believe us, we love them deeply.

Be Honest

"COVID 19 is a sickness like a cold. Some people will get it. Maybe someone in our family might get sick. We are all a little bit scared. Being scared is a sign that we are concentrating on being safe. There are really good people like doctors who know what to do. They are helping to figure it out."

Validate Their Feelings

"I know I might look worried sometimes. Mums or dads get worried too, just like children. I know it can make you feel scared. But I am ok."
"It is ok to be feeling scared, or worried, or whatever you are feeling right now. You can share that with me whenever you need to."

Acknowledge Day to Day Disruptions

"Even if school and your after school activities stop for a while, they will start up again. How about we think about some ways of doing versions of these things together at home if we need to?"

Remind Them

"I love you, and that is one thing that will never change."

Here are some ways that parents and carers can share connection, comfort and care with their children right now.

Look to History

"There have been sicknesses like this before. And they have stopped. Clever people from around the world have worked them out together. The scientists are doing this right now with this one."

Remain Available

"You can talk with me whenever you need to. I will answer any questions you have. If I don't know the answers, I will find out and then I will tell you."

Have fun

Share some time with your children that is just for them, and let them lead the play.

"Let's do some things that you like to do."

Create some quiet time

Find a regular time where you can just be still with children. Stroke their hair. Watch a favourite show on TV. Listen to music together. Let them decide if they want to talk. Be present with them. Enjoy it.

HOW TO EMPOWER CHILDREN WHEN THEY STRUGGLE

Big Life Journal

1 LISTEN AND EMPATHIZE

Practice listening when your child vents to you about a problem.

- Provide choices
- Validate your child's feelings
- Ask your child open-ended questions
- Prompting with questions like,
- You can also ask, "What do you need from me?"

"What do you think would happen if you tried ____?"

2 MODEL THE ATTITUDE YOU WANT TO SEE

Practice listening when your child vents to you about a problem.

- Use phrases like, "This is hard. I need a break," or, "This is hard. I'm going to keep trying."
- Ask your child to help you brainstorm solutions.
- Avoid expressing negative opinions of yourself or making comments like, "I can't do this."
- Focus on the positive. Was a lesson learned? Did you improve? Did you overcome the struggle--and how great did it feel?

3 BUILD UP CONFIDENCE WITH AGE-APPROPRIATE TASKS

Boost your child's feelings of confidence and capability by allowing him to do age-appropriate tasks on his own.

GETTING DRESSED

MAKING THE BED

PICKING UP TOYS

PREPARING FOODS LIKE CEREAL OR TOAST

4 REMIND THEM OF PAST STRUGGLES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Remind your child of tasks that were once difficult and became easier with time.

WHAT ARE YOUR CHILD'S STRENGTHS?

HOW DID HE GROW THESE STRENGTHS?

5 TEACH PROBLEM-SOLVING SKILLS

Teach a simple process like the following:

- Step 1: What am I feeling?
- Step 2: What's the problem?
- Step 3: What are the solutions?
- Step 4: What would happen if...?
- Step 5: What will I try?

6 KNOW WHEN TO LEND A HAND

Step in when:

- There is a safety concern.
- When a task that is not developmentally appropriate.
- A skill(s) needs to be learned before your child can succeed.
- Your child has tried multiple strategies and persevered, but is still struggling. In this case, offer guidance and help. Then, discuss what your child learned and praise the effort/progress.

1

Fold and unfold in half. Once, horizontally. Both ways, diagonally.

2

Bring the top corners to the center.

3

Fold in half along the existing central crease.

4

Slightly separate the bottom flaps. Involve 3 existing creases as you push to invert a triangle.

5 After you have 8 units...

Assemble!

Insert the non-flap end of one unit between the flaps of another unit. Lock the units together by folding in the excess. (x8)

Battleship

Rules and game play:

Plot all of your ships by drawing an outline of each ship on the grid according to its size. For example, a battleship is four blocks, but an aircraft carrier is five blocks. Ships may not overlap. Take turns firing upon the enemy by calling out plot points - for example: A-5. Mark your shot as a hit (X) or a miss (O) on your enemy ship grid according to your opponents reply. When your enemy fires upon you, answer hit or miss, according to their shot. Mark your hit ships with an X on the "my ships" grid. When the ships are sunk, you must inform your opponent that it is sunk and which ship it is, for example, "My aircraft carrier is sunk!".

The first person to sink all of the enemy ships wins the game.

Connect the Dots

Dots and boxes is a simple game with a simple goal: whoever "owns" the most boxes at the end of the game wins. You and your opponent take turns drawing horizontal or vertical lines to connect the boxes. When someone draws a line that completes a box, you write your initial inside to win the box. Once all the dots have been connected, you can count up the boxes and find the winner.

Dots!

A large grid of 15 columns and 15 rows of dots, intended for a Dots and Boxes game. The word "Dots!" is written in a large, bold, black font at the top center of the grid.
