

Your local Australian Air Force Cadet Squadron is now recruiting.

Recruiting is open for all youth between 13 and 18 years of age. Our aim is:

- To give cadets a foundation of Royal Australian Air Force (RAAF) knowledge and discipline
- To develop qualities of leadership, self-reliance and initiative
- To develop character and good citizenship in the widest sense
- To develop an interest in the RAAF and aviation generally
- To instil a knowledge of aviation history
- To encourage cadets to continue an active interest in aviation into their adult life

The Australian Air Force Cadets have a range of home training subjects including, Drill and Ceremonial, Service Knowledge, Field craft, Aviation, Survival, as well as elective subjects such as Leadership and Personal Development.

Training is completed using a variety of methods ranging from; small classrooms taught by senior cadets, weekend and week-long camps on military establishments and weekend camping trips.

All training is conducted outside of school hours, during the school terms, with exception to camps that are run during school holidays.

Instructors are all First Aid qualified who have completed Safety and behavioural training, along with being Working with Children certified.

We invite you to publish the below details in your school newsletter to encourage students at your school to join our Youth Development Program.
