

FRIDAY

OCTOBER 16

Open Mic Night

Shamrock Hotel - 7pm

Free admission

Join the Lake School tutors together with locals & Performers for a blackboard Event. Sing along & be entertained. Order a meal or just relax and listen. Walk up artists are welcome.

Details see over.

Jazz and Shiraz

Numurkah Golf & Bowls Club - 8pm

FREE to view. Listen to great jazz classics while you sip on local Shiraz & tasting platters.

Phone (03) 5862 3445

'Susie Knew'

To be staged at the Numurkah Town Hall 7pm.

The talented Numurkah Singers present 'The World Premier The Play' was written by well known Australian playwright Marlene Dreyer. The lost script was recently discovered.

Tickets available The Common Thread, or at the door.

SATURDAY

OCTOBER 17

Lions Market

South Bank of Broken Creek

8.30am - 1.00pm

Contact details (see over).

Wander round the many and varied stalls all part of the local area market scene.

Melville Street Footpath Specials

9.00am - 2.00pm

Extra special bargains from local shops and business in our single strip shopping centre. Grab a bargain and be entertained by street buskers.

Numurkah Historical Society Museum

10.30am to 3.30pm

Cnr. Melville & Knox Streets. The Numurkah & District historical collection is housed in the double storey ex-Bank Building. Visit for scones & cuppa. Meet with the enthusiastic Volunteers with a wealth of knowledge they are happy to share with you.

Taste of Sun Country on the Murray

11.30am - 2.00pm

Meander down Melville Street tasting a variety of snacks & food from food stalls. Our town centre, Newman Square will showcase producers from our area Farm Gate Trail. Taste local wine and cheese together with area Farmer's Market produce. There will be rides and entertainment for the youngsters as well as Numurkah Lake School dancers and musicians. Tea and coffee is available with decadent cakes and slices at our bakeries, coffee shops and hotels.

Telegraph Hotel

12.30pm to 2.00pm

Catch the lake school tutors jamming with our local talent, enjoy the fun with the musicians. Enjoy a meal or a selection from the chef's tapas.

SATURDAY NIGHT

OCTOBER 17

Irish meets Italian

Monichino Winery, 7pm • $40

Berrys Road, Katunga

Relax with Anna Sergi and her Irish Executive Chef for a wine and dining experience. Enjoy the music and the warmth and hospitality that Anna and staff are renowned for.

Bookings to 5862 3458 or to Winery 5864 6452