Young Endeavour Program

In the Young Endeavour program, young people work together to operate a sailing ship over 10 – 13 days and develop leadership and teamwork skills. This is an amazing program and it's very competitive to gain a place. Dates for 2023 and 2024 are available on the Young Endeavour website. Cost is $2,300 and includes accommodation and meals on the ship. For information, visit <https://youngendeavour.gov.au/>

RISE Global Leaders

Rise is a program that finds promising young people and provides them with opportunities that allow them to work together to serve others over their lifetimes. An initiative of Schmidt Futures and the Rhodes Trust, Rise is the anchor program of a $1 billion commitment from Eric and Wendy Schmidt to find and support global talent.

Key benefits

All Rise Global Winners receive access to the following benefits and participate in the following programs upon selection:

- Access to need-based scholarships at any accredited university
- Mentorship and career services for personal, academic, or professional guidance
- Access to the Global Winner Network, and much more.

Information - www.risefortheworld.org

Applications close for the program on 17 January 2024. A virtual information session is being held on 4 November, register here - <https://ventures.uq.edu.au/rise>

US and UK academic tours

If you're keen to study at a US College or a UK university, you may be interested in applying for an academic tour organised by Crimson Education.

The next tour is the Ivy League Model United Nations Delegation in January 2024. Students will visit top US universities and learn about campus life, visit Tiger Global, United Nations and the US Capitol, learn about US history and culture, and make friends from around the world. EMPLOYMENT

With the summer holidays coming up, now is the perfect time to start applying for jobs. There are several methods for finding employment. The following explores three.

1. Cold Calling

Did you know that many jobs aren't advertised? These employers rely on word of mouth and/or contact people who drop in resumes to their business. This is called 'cold calling'. What does this mean for you? It means you have to be:

Proactive

Get your resume and cover letter together, use/buy/borrow a smart outfit and hit the streets. Employers love young people who demonstrate initiative and independence.

Organised

Ask someone to go over your resume to look for spelling and grammatical errors. Ensure it is formatted correctly and no more than 2-pages. Be careful of using online resume builders as often the formatting looks poor. Youth Central has excellent sample resumes, www.youthcentral.vic.gov.au

Engaged

Let everyone know you are looking for casual employment. Word of mouth is a powerful tool for finding a job. Contact the referees on your resume to let them know they may receive calls from employers.

2. Register with businesses

Some businesses allow prospective employees to register with their organisation and apply for jobs advertised on their website. Simply Google the name of the business + the term 'jobs' for information on how to express your interest in working for the company. For example, 'KFC jobs'.

3. Search for advertised jobs

The following websites are great to bookmark and check regularly:

www.seek.com.au
<https://au.jora.com>
<https://au.indeed.com/>

Also check the classified section in your local newspaper.

Use the Summer Jobs website to search for jobs in your area - <https://summerjobs.com.au/>

Excellent job seeking resources

FOCUS ON TAFE COURSES

Did you know that by November 2026, an estimated 91.7% of job opportunities will require post-school qualifications?

These qualifications include vocational training that you can pursue at institutions like TAFE and polytechnic institutes, which are widely accessible across Australia.

These institutes offer a range of programs, including vocational courses and, in some cases, higher education options. Some of them are even affiliated with universities.

In Australia, there are six 'dual-sector' institutes, meaning they provide both TAFE and university courses. In Victoria, the following institutes fall into this category:

RMIT University
Swinburne University of Technology
Victoria University/Victoria Polytechnic
Federation University

These institutions can offer you a diverse range of educational pathways to prepare for the changing demands of the job market.

Why should you consider studying at TAFE?

- Can give you the opportunity to trial an industry or career area before you commit to university study.
- Can give you a qualification you can use to gain part time work whilst undertaking university study.
- Employers love candidates with job ready skills!
- Obtain a qualification in a relatively short time frame.
- You won't need an ATAR or prerequisite school subjects for most courses, so the courses are accessible for most school leavers.
- Higher level courses (e.g., Diploma) can provide a direct pathway into university courses with credit.

Examples

Luke would love to work with animals in the future but he isn't sure what to study. He explores TAFE courses such as:

- Veterinary nursing
- Captive animals
- Animal studies
- Companion animal services
- Pet grooming
- Racing (stable hand, trackwork rider)
- Horse breeding
- Equine studies.

Luke can't decide between veterinary nursing or zoo keeping as a pathway, so decides on the following plan:

Start with a general qualification

2024: Complete the Certificate II in Animal Studies and combine this with part time employment at a local boarding kennel or volunteer with a local wildlife rescue organisation.

Zoo Keeping pathway

Apply for the Taronga Zoo Certificate III in Wildlife and Exhibited Animal Care (at the Melbourne campus).

Veterinary Nursing pathway

Complete the Certificate IV in Veterinary Nursing via a traineeship or partnership between a vet clinic and a registered training organisation such as the Australian College of Veterinary Nursing.

Rohan is a 'people person'. He loves interacting with people, is the socialite of the group, loves organising events, and is an excellent communicator. He explores courses such as:

- Hospitality management
- Hotel management
- Resort management
- Event management
- Travel and tourism
- Aviation (Cabin Crew)

Jane knows she loves working with people, has excellent written and verbal communication skills, is creative, loves thinking outside the box, is highly organised and enjoys solving problems. She explores the following TAFE courses:

- Public Relations
- Marketing
- Advertising
- Professional Writing and Editing
- Broadcast Journalism
- Liberal Arts
- Library and Information Services

Sheridan loves sciences and health and is considering working in rehabilitation, medical sciences or allied health in the future. She explores the following courses:

- Dental Technology
- Nursing
- Massage and Myotherapy
- Allied Health Assistance
- Laboratory Technology
- Pathology Collection

Paul knows he loves helping people and that he would like to work in counselling, case management, or human services in the future. He explores the following courses:

- Community Services
- Youth Work
- Disability Services
- Mental Health
- Alcohol and other Drugs
- Aged Care

To search for TAFE courses, use the following websites:

Victorian Skills Gateway website - www.skills.vic.gov.au/s/
TAFE NSW - <http://bit.ly/1mgM05>
Your Career (Australia wide) - www.yourcareer.gov.au

TAFE COURSES CONTINUED

Examples of occupations with predicted employment growth by November 2026 include:

- aged and disabled carers
- general clerks
- chefs
- ICT support technicians
- electricians
- education aides
- child carers
- plumbers

Applications are open for most TAFE and polytechnic institutes and private providers. The following is important to know:

Competitive courses may have early closing dates.

You may need to complete additional tasks as part of your application such as portfolios, literacy and numeracy tests, information sessions, applying for a Working With Children Check, etc.

Contact the TAFE for information.

APPRENTICESHIPS & TRAINEESHIPS

Now is a great time to be searching for your dream apprenticeship/traineeship!

There are many positions available for enthusiastic young people who are keen to work hard, earn while you learn, and obtain a portable qualification.

Get specialised support

Staff from these organisations are highly skilled and can assist you through all stages of finding, securing, and undertaking an apprenticeship or traineeship. Search for organisations via www.australianapprenticeships.gov.au

INTERESTED IN TAKING A GAP YEAR?

What is a gap year?

Traditionally a gap year was taken by Year 12 students who deferred their universities studies for 12-months. Now gap years are taken by students who would like to delay their TAFE or university studies or apprenticeships.

What are the benefits of taking a gap year?

There are many benefits for young people – the following are several:

Financial: save money to fund future study/training.

Career development: complete a traineeship, TAFE course, volunteering etc., before starting university studies. This may improve your graduate employment prospects and give you practical employment skills.

Take a break: if you're feeling burnt out from study, taking a break may be beneficial for your mental wellbeing.

Give you time to firm up your future goals: if you're feeling unsure about your study or training plans, a gap year may give you time to explore your goals, attend open days, participate in work or training related to your interests, and give you more time to make sure the course or training you want to do in the future is right for you.

Gap year programs

Year13 have put together a list of companies that offer working holidays, travel, and volunteer gap year programs, <https://year13.com.au/explore/travel>
