

School Holiday Program (October 2018) for young people with disability

Want to give your child an invaluable experience these school holidays?

During the school holidays, The Salvation Army – Youthlink Skills 4 Life Service will run a variety of programs for young people with disabilities (NDIS eligible only). The program is an evidence based program, designed and facilitated by Occupational Therapists, Psychologists and Outdoor Recreation experts. The July school holiday program will be available for the following age and functional criteria:

Skills 4 Life Explorers: October 2nd – 5th (4 days)

(Students age 8-18 Limited verbal communication, supervision or assistance with self-care.)

Skills 4 Life Challengers: October 8th-13th (5 days)

(Students age 8-18 verbal communication, independent with self-care.)

Activities will include outdoor recreation, arts and crafts and other centre-based activities including the Sargents Challenge Centre.

Goals of the program include development and improvement on social, sensory, motor, and life skills, as well as increased self-confidence, motivation, team work, leadership, and improved physical health and wellbeing.
