The Boys – Nola

I would firstly like to thank my drama teachers Mr. Tsak and Ms. Green, having both as my teachers have taught me to be comfortable with being myself on stage and have shown me how the love of drama can create such a beautiful community. I also want to thank my family for always coming to support me in any performance I've been in big or small and for always making me feel so supported and loved in performance times.

In the future I aspire and hope that acting and Drama is a big factor within my life and after high school I would love to go further with it, however, I wouldn't mind being a music producer and try and immerse myself in creating music further.

Bombshells – Teresa

In primary school, I participated in the year 5 production of Oliver as an ensemble member. The peak of my acting career came in year 7 when I played Snow White in the Fractured Fairytales performances. In year 8, I was in Monty Python's Hearing Aid Sketch, and in year 9 Musical Theatre was Chiffon from Little Shop of Horrors. In the first semester of year 10 I played Spud in Spitting Chips and then the second semester I was the Doctor in Louder, I Can't Hear You and Kron in Rabbit. Year 11

I was a member of the chorus for Legally Blonde, played Lewis in our scenes from Cosi, and Christopher for our performance of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime. That year I was also a member of the winning team for Senior House Theatre Sports, along with my fellow Wardians. This year I played Ensemble Member #5 (Anna) in Chicago, the Cook in Mother Courage and Her Children, Joe in When the Rain Stops Falling, and performed in Rocky Horror for the 5-minute musicals. I'd like to thank Mr Tsak, Ms Green, and all the friends I've made through the drama program, but most importantly the sweet treats that greet me when I walk into class, you are the highlight of my day.

Woman Who Cooked Her Husband – Kelly

I have been so lucky to have had so many opportunities over my years at John XXIII College, And the incredible drama program I have had the privilege of being part of. I have had incredible teachers who have given me so much wisdom, confidence, resilience and motivation. Thank you especially to Ms. Green and Mr. Tsak who have taught me throughout high school. Words do not describe how lucky I am to have had the opportunity to have them as teachers but also mentors. They go above and beyond every single day. The dedication, passion and countless hours they have put into the subject is truly admirable. I also want to thank my family, for always supporting me and watching all of my performances. I am so grateful for their unconditional love and support of me and my love of drama. I have been given a second home on the JTC stage, and it is something that I will cherish for life. I aspire and hope to have a career onstage and go to WAAPA and continue my love and passion for the performing arts. Being onstage is an indescribable experience that I can't imagine my life or future without.

Felix Frichot

Keeping Up – Partygoer

Felix Frichot has always had a passion for Performing Arts. He was born with a top hat on and cane in hand, and upon setting foot on the ground executed a flawless performance of ‘Hello, my baby’. However, no one believes his parents when they say this. Going to Felix for comment, he says: “Forsooth! Look Mum, I made it! I’d like to thank Mr. Dockery for always playing my exit music! Ooo, and I'd love to go to bat country some day!”

Credits:

Little Shop of Horrors (Orin Scrivello, Audrey II), Of Long Days and Brave Knights (Reuben), Legally Blonde (Callahan), Chicago (Amos), One Legged Tarzan (Talent Agent), The Tragedy of the Actors of a Production of Romeo and Juliet (Dave the Exterminator).

Esther Goodlet

Laughing Wild – Woman

I am a Year 12 Drama student taught by the profound Mr Tsak. In year 7 Revolting Rhymes I played Little Red Riding Hood in "Little Red Riding Hood" and "The Three Little Pigs". In year 8 I was a little boy and a towns member in "Stories in the Dark", along with a TV presenter and a shop customer in "British Invasion". In year 9 I was Audrey in "Little Shop of Horrors", Tiggy in "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory", and played Lady Chiddingfold in "Murder at Moorestone's Manor".

In year 10 I played Anne in "Louder I Can't Hear You". In year 11 I played Christopher in "Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time". Finally, in year 12 I played Hunyak (the Hungarian woman) in the musical "Chicago". Unfortunately, I have not endeavoured to continue with my bilingual roles, but I hope to impress people in English as well.

Caitlin Jackson

Weight of the Gavel – Linda

In my time at John XX III College I have been involved in many different performances, productions and musicals since primary through to secondary. In year 4 I played Lady Dent in the musical Oh What a Knight. In year 7 I played Cinderella in Revolting Rhymes, year 8 I played Mrs Demin in The Dirty Fork and the Vicar in the Vicar of Dibley. That year I was in the ensemble in the 8/9 production Stories in the Dark. In year 9 I played the mom in Bonzer Mate and Penelope Grayson in Tomkinson's Schooldays. In the year 9 musical Little Shop of Horrors I played Mrs Mushnik. That year in the 8/9 I played Mrs Gloop in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Year 10 I played Emily in School Dance and Black Mail and Junior in Louder I Can't Hear You. In the Musical The little Mermaid I was in the chorus, and the following musical Legally Blonde I played Gaelen and Prison Guard. In year 11 I played Christopher in The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time and Lucy in Cosi. This year in year 12 I played Mary Sunshine in the musical Chicago. I have also played Swiss Cheese in Mother Courage and Her Children and Gabrielle in When the Rain Stops Falling. I have been a part of theatre sports in years 7,9,11 and 12, and the 5 minute musical of Rocky Horror. John XXIII College has been a tremendous support in nurturing my love for the arts, providing me with endless opportunities to grow and express myself. I am grateful for the confidence and people skills I have gained, thanks to the dedicated teachers and their guidance. My aspirations for the future are to be able to implement the skills I have developed through the drama program into my future career. Drama has been such an salient part of my life and I hope to nurture others passions as JTC has nurtured mine.

Conny Janssen

Last of the Red Hot Lovers –

The Oresteia – Clytemnestra

During Primary school I got to participate in 3 Musicals; The Lion King, a showcase and Back to the Eighties, where I played various ensemble roles. In the Revolting Rhymes of Year 7 I played Snow White's Evil Stepmother and was part of Monty Python's Cheese Shop Sketch in Year 8. In Year 9, I played Vikki from Lockie Leonard, and was Dorothy in the Year 9's Musical The Wiz. I also was in the 8/9 Production of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and played Charlie's mum. During Year 10 I played Gwen from Away. I was also part of the chorus of the Little Mermaid that year. Upon entering Year 11, I played Lewis in our short scenes from Cosi, and was Siobhan for the second half of our production of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime. I also played the part of Elle's Mum and the Judge in Legally Blonde last year. This year, I had the honour of playing Matron 'Mama' Morton in Chicago, the Chaplain in our short scenes from Mother Courage and her Children, Gabrielle from When the Rain stops Falling, and was part of the winning Loreto team in this year's Senior Theatre Sports. I would like to acknowledge Mr Tsakisiris and Ms Green for their brilliant Directing and Casting, and all the friends I have made along the way, and most importantly, the food that has fuelled me all these years; Heinz Baked Beans.
