BEHIND THE JOB: Home Support Assessor

What do they do?

Home Support Assessors evaluate the needs of older adults and people with disabilities to help them access support services. They conduct in-home assessments, develop care plans, and connect individuals with relevant services to maintain their independence and quality of life.

What are their strengths?

- Strong interpersonal skills
- Problem-solving skills
- Empathy and patience when working with clients

How do they get started?

A Certificate III or IV in Individual Support, Aged Care, or Disability Support provides a solid foundation for this role while a degree in social work, nursing, or community services can lead to more senior positions.
