2016 Senior Coach Announcement

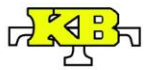

Tatura Football Netball Club (TFNC) senior coach Jamason Daniels recently spent time with the Gold Coast Suns AFL team as part of his ongoing commitment to his TFNC coaching career. This professional development opportunity arose via his relationship with Rodney Eade, who he spent time with at the Western Bulldogs.

Jamason has today advised the TFNC that during his time with the Suns he was offered the opportunity to take on a development coaching role with it and to also captain its 'reserves' team that competes in the North East Australian Football League (NEAFL). Consequently, Jamason has advised the TFNC he intends to accept the position with the Suns and has tendered his resignation as senior coach. Jamason said the agonising decision to leave the TFNC was extremely difficult, not least of all because he considers the club part of his family. His passion remains as strong as ever for the TFNC, particularly in light of what he views as the fantastic base the club has built for a successful 2016, but also well into the future, which, understandably made the decision to accept the position at the Suns even more difficult.

While the TFNC is disappointed to lose a coach and person of Jamason's calibre it respects his decision to pursue other opportunities. In short, it was an opportunity too good to pass up. Jamason has been an outstanding and dedicated servant of the TFNC in the short time he has been with the club. His talent, enthusiasm, professionalism and engagement with players, members and supporters alike has the TFNC well placed to climb the ladder in 2016. The TFNC wishes Jamason nothing but goodwill and good luck and, you never know, looks forward to perhaps working with him again in the future.

With Jamason's departure the TFNC is pleased and very proud to announce that Linc Wellington has been appointed playing coach of the senior team for 2016. Linc, a Tatura native, needs no introduction to TFNC players, members and supporters. He is a two-time premiership player and legend of the club. The TFNC believes Linc has the passion and drive to take the next step into coaching and enjoys the respect and commitment of all associated with the club. Linc and Jamason will enjoy a number of weeks together, starting this Friday, to allow a complete and seamless handover before the season begins. We invite all members and supporters to get down to training to show their support and pass on their best wishes to both Linc and Jamason.

Simon Pogue.
Vice President.
