16. The creative design agency "Blick Creative" are not eligible to receive the prize should their design be deemed as the desired logo of choice by the judges.

JUDGING PROCESS AND WINNER DETERMINATION

17. Each entrant who has entered the competition, and has satisfied competition conditions reflected in clause 4 to 12 will be eligible to win.

18. If more than 22 public submissions are received at the close of the Completion Period, Council officers will consolidate the public submission entries to 22 through a pre-determined list of criteria derived by the competition design brief.
19. The three submissions previously provided independent of this competition by the creative design agency "Blick Creative" along with the 22 public submissions, will be consolidated to three by a panel of judges consisting of at least five and no more than ten invited Whitehorse business/community representatives through a pre-determined list of criteria derived by the competition design brief.
20. The final three submissions as determined by the Judges will form the basis of the final selection.
21. Judges vote on the final three submissions independent to each other, online and on the day proceeding the group review. Council will approve the final design prior to winner announcement.
22. The final three submitters will be notified and a logo competition winner announcement with photo may be scheduled.
23. The winning submission logo and submitters name will be published in Council's Down to Business publication - July 2019 edition and Council's Investment and Economic Development website at wbiz.com.au.
24. Whitehorse City Council's announcement and the judges' decision is final. No correspondence will be entered into. The prize cannot be redeemed for cash. The winner must collect the prize within 14 days of being notified unless agreed to by Council. The winner must show ID upon collection of prize and sign a receipt of prize upon collection.

NO LIABILITY
