PROGRAM OVERVIEW

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

BUILT FOR THE NEXT GENERATION OF FIRST RESPONDERS

This pathway program is designed for high school students aspiring to build a career in the pre-hospital health care sector. The HLT31220 Certificate III in Basic Health Care equips learners with essential skills and knowledge to operate as first aid or medical response workers.

Ideal for students interested in emergency services, the Australian Defence Force, or industrial first response - and a powerful first step toward becoming a registered paramedic.
