

Presented by Hume City Council in collaboration with Northern Community Legal Centre

COMMUNITY EVENT: 16 DAYS OF ACTIVISM AGAINST GENDER BASED VIOLENCE

Respect is Strength: Stand Up, Speak Out

Come and join us for a free and informative community event to learn how we can work together to prevent gender-based violence.

The event will feature a musical performance, an expert panel, afternoon tea and information stalls from local services. Children are welcome to attend with their parent and/or guardian. There will be a separate supervised area for children with fun activities.

November
26th, 2024

Broadmeadows
Town Hall

1:30PM -
3:00PM

Suad Rejk (she/her)

Hume Local, Family Violence
Lived Experience Advocate and Former NCLC Peer Educator

Ben Brown (he/him)

Former Professional AFL Player, Social Justice Advocate and Our Watch Ambassador

Tess Karambilas (she/her)

Gender and Disability Project Officer at Women with Disabilities Victoria and Family Violence Lived Experience
Advocate

