Caught Reading

Sacred Heart is reviving a former Book Week tradition.

Children are asked submit a photo of themselves, where they are caught reading a book in unusual places. They might be sitting in a cupboard, up in a tree, riding a skateboard, etc. Last day for submitting photos to Jeanette is Wednesday, 23rd August.

Colouring in Competition

There are colouring sheets on the library desk which are available to collect at any time. These can be completed at home or when the students have library lessons.

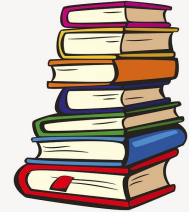

These are to be handed into the library by Thursday, 17th August. All entries will be displayed in and around the library if you wish to have a look when picking up your children.

★ Name and grade need to be on the back of the colouring sheet.

WEDNESDAY 23rd - COSY READING AFTERNOON

Children can bring in an oodie, blanket, slippers for a cosy afternoon of reading. A biscuit for each will be provided.

Bring a couple of books to read.
Teachers will be reading too.

Thursday, 24th 9:00 - 10:00 - Book Parade And Parent Reading

9:00 - Classes are to be seated around the basketball court.

Parents are invited to stay and watch the parade.

Costumes

Children are to wear a costume related to a character in a book and will carry the book around with them in the parade. As we have footy day at the end of term AFL, rugby and soccer outfits are not to be worn for the book parade. Imagination is encouraged.

After the parade parents and carers are invited to the classrooms to share their favourite childhood books with the children and/or listen to their child read.

Thursday, August 31st - Book Week Performance 'WAY TOO COOL'

This is the week following Book Week. The performance will be in the hall and starts promptly at 9:00 so all students will need to be seated straight after the roll has been taken in the classroom.

This is a student only activity.
