

Holiday Adventures in Vietnam and Singapore.

During the school holidays, my family and I went to Vietnam and Singapore.

First, I went to Singapore and I stayed at the airport. In the morning I woke at 5am to catch my flight to Ho Chi Minh city. There were 25 million people in Ho Chi Minh City so it was packed! Everyone living there rides bikes and it is chaotic!

I forgot the name of our hotel but it was really good because we had the best penthouse at the hotel. We were on the very top of the hotel. When we unpacked, we went to a place called MyBaMI. I had the banh mi of course and they were the best!

The next day, we went on a tour bus and we sat on the top level which was very cool. When we got off we went to the shops that sell fake goods which was interesting. It was continuously hot both outside and in the shop. Some days, I went in the pool even when it was raining as it was such tropical conditions.

On Tuesday, I got ready because I was going to Da Nang. After the tiring flight, we jumped into a taxi and went to our resort villa. After arriving, we went to our rooms and unpacked. We were told that Donald Trump slept in the same penthouse that we were in.

As we settled in, we saw the waterslide, arcade with games that were free, a golf simulator and the beach was right in front of us! Everyday we went to the pool and played soccer. It was 38 degrees everyday but to me it felt like 41 degrees. We also met up with other families and on the last night we went out to dinner with 31 people! We ate a lot!

The next day we got up to catch a flight to Singapore and stayed at the Pan Pacific hotel. We continued our fun in another water park.

Finally, we boarded our plane back to Melbourne. When I got home I watched the last two minutes of the footy and went to bed.

I loved our holiday and would highly recommend Vietnam and Singapore!
